PROFESSIONAL, PERSONALIZED & AUTHENTIC

WHO I AM

I am a professional musician and singer-songwriter from Winston-Salem, North Carolina. I have years of experience performing across the region, blending classic favorites and soulful originals in front of crowds of all sizes. I am passionate about creating experiences that feel personal and professional.

WHAT I DO

I offer live acoustic and full-band music for weddings, receptions, rehearsal dinners, and more. My goal is to make your event unforgettable with performances customized to match your vision. I work closely with each couple to choose the perfect songs, handle all sound equipment needs, and ensure a smooth, stress-free experience.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE WORKING WITH ME

Have a special song you would love to hear? I would love to learn it. One song in particular that you just can't stand? We will make sure to knock that off the list. If you're dreaming of a wedding that feels warm, genuine, and full of great music, I would love to help make that happen. I am excited to work with you throughout the entire process - from the moment we say hello to the moment you say I do.

WHAT TYPES OF PERFORMANCES DO YOU OFFER?

I am available to book as a solo, duo, trio, or 4-piece band. I work with a fantastic group of local musicians who are reliable, professional, and experienced, and ready to help make your event special and memorable.

Here are some ideas of how our performances might fit into your special day:

- Peaceful background music for the ceremony
- Laid-back solo-acoustic sets for cocktail hour
- Customizable acoustic/lead duo for your first dance
- Upbeat trio performance for the reception dinner
- Energetic 4-piece band show for the dance floor

Other performance ideas include romantic music for a unique proposal, bridal shower, rehearsal dinner, or Sunday brunch.
